

Best Practice Behaviors of a Chamber Board Director

1

Comes prepared for and is productive during board meetings.

2

Cultivates trust and respect within the board and with organization staff.

3

Encourages diversity of thought among board members.

4

Uses data to inform decisions and measure organizational performance.

5

Empowers staff to drive the day-to-day management of the organization.

6

Upholds all governing documents and organizational policies.

7

Aids in securing adequate resources for the organization.

8

Advocates for the organization and actively participates in its initiatives.

9

Represents the organization positively in the community.